NOMA

June, 28-30, 2017, Nizhni Novgorod, Russia

Regular European Workshops "Nonlinear Maps and Their Applications" (NOMA) are held biannually in the European Universities.

In 2017 the Steklov Mathematical Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences and the Institute of Information Technologies, Mathematics and Mechanics of the National Research Nizhni Novgorod State University take up the torch to hold the European Workshop NOMA-2017.

The following topics will be presented in the framework of the Conference:
Topological, Differential, Ergodic
Aspects of Theory of Nonlinear Maps (both Finitely-Dimensional and Infinitely Dimensional), Bifurcations and Applications of Nonlinear Maps.
